

Melanie DewBerry

...is in the business of human potential

Conversation Curator • Wisdom Cultivator

Speaking & Writing on Consciousness,
Soul and the Love of Life

We Belong to One Another

Melanie speaks to engage audiences in the relevance of wisdom, courage and belonging. A masterful storyteller, she brings the fun and smart conversation. As an attendee you leave richer in spirit and joyous for laughter.

When Melanie takes the stage, you can count on a few things. She is thought provoking and will challenge listeners. Her content sticks long after her presentation is finished. Her conversations have personal and professional relevance. You're going to laugh out loud more than a few times. And, you will ask her back.

Melanie's Native American Elders imparted their indigenous wisdom to her, empowering her to share what she has learned to elicit the wisdom within, fire up creativity and ignite your visions. Inviting audience interaction, Melanie speaks poetic wisdom. Her conversations are best suited for women's conferences, corporate annual growth retreats, spiritual and personal growth events, and wherever wisdom wants to prevail.

To engage Melanie please contact courage@melaniedewberry.com or call 650-346-3581

Speaker Topics

What the Elders Taught Me:

Storytelling is an ancient tradition of distilling wisdom and teaching. In this presentation, Melanie brings forth a teaching through storytelling that is customized for your audience. Eliciting the wisdom in the room, Melanie makes this an interactive session that embeds learning through stories.

The power of Naming:

Are you well rooted? Are you consistent with peace and love with yourself and others? Is your own wisdom embedded and leading you? If you wriggle out of all the identities that others have foisted on you, what is left? These are the central questions Melanie poses, as together, you'll explore your soul's yearning to be known, to live on purpose, and to be authentic.

Why Leaders Should Learn to Love their People:

Oh, the love word. It conjures up frightening touchy-feely images. However, love is also a crucial "skill" required for those who lead. Love is the game changer. If you consider the people and things you love at the personal level, you can easily see the positive impact. This session is designed to demystify love in the workplace, giving you down-to-earth ways to approach and integrate love in your business.

The Difference Woo-Woo Will Make in Your Business and Life:

The truth is, it's not business as usual. The truth is, the soft skills are the hardest to acquire but make the greatest positive impact on leadership, decreasing turnover and having to "manage" staff. This is not a "flowers in your hair" presentation. It's a discussion of practical, down-to-earth skills that will transform how you work and how your customers see you.

"In her talk, "Languaging Consciousness", Melanie DewBerry-Jones inspired our guests at TEDxPannonia 2013 with her keen awareness of how much power and influence words can and do have. Her talk offered passionate insights about integrating that kind of thinking into our everyday lives. Melanie is a powerful speaker not to be missed."

- Hermann Gams, TEDx Curator

More about Melanie

Melanie is a spiritual teacher, mentor coach and author. She received a Master of Arts in Asian Economic Development and Political Risk at Dominican University (CA). Taking her business acumen to the people, Melanie served the public in several nonprofits and co-created the first youth credit union (staffed completely by youth) in Northern California.

A coach and solopreneur for 20 plus years, she started her coaching career at the renowned Coaches Training Institute (CTI) and was a Senior Lead Trainer for 10 years. She co-created Choice magazine and wrote the wildly loved column, "The Soul of Coaching" for five years.

Melanie began taking stage as a keynote speaker in 2000. From working in Wuxi, China, to delivering TEDx talks in Vienna and Vancouver, Melanie has traveled the globe, enlightening audiences to their shared humanity. Her new book, The Power of Naming, The Journey Toward Your Soul's Indigenous Nature, (Hay House, 2017), is a guide to answering your soul's yearning to be known, to live on purpose, and to be authentic.

Contact Information

Melanie DewBerry

(650) 346-3581 (PST)

courage@melaniedewberry.com

www.melaniedewberry.com